FloridaCottonCo.com Welcomes The Amanda James Gallery In Boynton Beach, Florida

March 30, 2018, Boynton Beach, Florida. www.FloridaCottonCo.com is delighted to welcome the Amanda James Gallery as their newest retail partner. The gallery is owned and operated by Amanda Johnson and James Knill and is located at 412 East Ocean Avenue, Boynton Beach, Florida.

Amanda James is a boutique gallery operated by a local husband and wife artist team. The gallery offers beautifully hand painted clothing, fine art and brilliantly designed home accessories. "We were immediately stuck by their artistry, vivid colors and their attention to detail. Together Amanda and James have meticulously created every item in their boutique. They are delightful, talented artists and we are honored to be the only outside vendor represented in their gallery," said Riad Shalaby, Founder of the Florida Cotton Company.

"James' unique exploration of color and composition inspire our physical space. I create wearable art. Together we celebrate the use of color and design in all of our work," said Amanda Johnson. "We appreciate the natural elegance of Egyptian cotton. I am particularly fond of the Egyptian boleros. They will complement our designs and we look forward to supporting the talented seamstresses who have brought them to life," Johnson continued.

www.floridacottoco.com launched its online store last fall to assist impoverished women and to help feed less fortunate children living in our neighborhoods. Here is a link to the company's story.

The partnership with Amanda James is the company's first in Boynton Beach. "We really appreciate their artwork! It is entirely possible that we integrate Amanda's hand painted designs into our boleros and pullovers," Shalaby continued.
